

[e1] Video games can definitely be used as a positive tool in schools to help teachers teach.

[e2] It gives students something they enjoy mixed with something they can learn.

[e3] Old fashioned learning is great

[e4] but kids sometimes tire of that quickly, and they need something to hold their attention.

